9 Things We Wish Someone Had Told Us Before We Moved To Panama

#1

Buy a dehumidifier
for your closet...

The background of the slide features a collage of images. At the top, there are branches with bright orange flowers. On the right side, a portion of a white building with a red-tiled roof is visible. The bottom left corner shows a view of a body of water and a distant shoreline.

#2

Plan your vacation
out of the country
around Carnival...

#3

Try to avoid arriving at the Tocumen airport
on a Sunday
afternoon...

#4

Palanca is important... it can matter who
you know...

#5

Not all residency
options are created equal...choose
based on your long-term agendas...

#6

Panama City
drivers are crazy...

The background of the slide features a decorative border. At the top, there are branches with bright orange flowers. On the right side, a portion of a white building with a red-tiled roof is visible. The bottom left corner shows a glimpse of a body of water and a sandy shore.

#7

Panama City
taxi drivers are crazier...

#8

Corruption is a reality... the “little bite”
is real...

#9

The number of daylight hours
doesn't change
much season
to season
